•Lots of deposits and checks cleared in October.

Current Tag Day total: $29,484

•Concessions total for all fall sports is just over $50,000 before expenses. The Sugar Shack was added to the Square.

•Coin Wars brought in $685.18.

•A thank you note was sent to Hinda Mitchell for her generous donation of $1,000. Kristine Blind sent a thank you letter for the $650 donation towards the Orchestra field trip.

•The taxes are done and filed for the tax year ending June 30th, 2018. The Yearly Charitable Registration is filed.

•I contacted Kristine Blind regarding our annual audit. She regrets that she will no longer have time to audit our books. Her recommendation is we form a committee that does the annual audit. Or we need to find another person to do it.

Rod: Shouldn't a licensed CPA do this?

Marla: Not necessarily, if we get a set of CPA audit procedures and follow those.

Assistant Treasurer's Report—Marla Becker

•Since last we met, mostly orchestra families have purchased $6,050 in Giant Eagle and Kohl's cards, earning $302.50 for student trip accounts.

•Current Trip account balances total $1758.15 in student accounts and $2952.05 in the General Trip Fund. I had a couple of large purchases that the buyer directed proceeds go to the General Trip Fund.

•I have requested a large order in Giant Eagle cards just to replace what was sold this past month. Some heavy orders have surprised me in the past around Black Friday and holiday shopping time.

Director's Reports

Mrs. Ballard—Middle School East Band Not Present

Mr. Bradshaw—Middle School South Band Not Present

Mr. Cebriak—Lincoln High School bands Not Present

• I apologize for my absence. I'm still trying to shake a sinus infection, and I would like it to be GONE before we get on a bus to New York.

•Since we last met...Marching season is just about wrapped up. Thanks to all who provided cookies, chaperoned, assisted with uniforms, and helped serve water to the band. It was a wet season, but we made it through while sounding and looking great! We're very proud of how the band performed and conducted themselves this year.

•The Freshman Band and Orchestra concert was a success. These groups are off to a good start. •Thanks to all who helped with the Bandfire. Once again, rain, but apparently a good time was had by all.

•Coming up...New York Trip – I've been putting together a document that will allow folks to see their room, bus, assigned chaperone, and entry times for Radio City and the 9/11 museum. I will post these on the BRT app. Make sure you have that app, even if you're not going on the trip. Your students have the codes.

•Chaperones who are leaving their cars here during the trip can either leave them in the City Hall lot or park them outside Mrs. Gambill's house. I have pink sheets for you to put on your dashboard. Leave as few cars as possible.

•Bob Rogers has told me that they provide a $60/day tip to the bus drivers, so we don't need to do anything there. They also said a tip was not necessary for the 2 tour directors, but we could give them one if we so desire. If you feel we should provide one for the tour directors, let me know and I will request the cash. (General consensus: go ahead and plan to tip the tour guides, Sonya will get with Mr. Cebriak to confirm the amount.)

•Holiday Lights Procession is Sunday, November 18. More information to come to students after the trip. It will be similar to last year, but we plan to do a fanfare as Santa goes to light the tree and then a sing-a-long to Santa Claus is Comin' to Town.

•Pep Band will be starting soon. Anticipating the first rehearsal to be November 19 and the second one to be November 27. These dates are tentative. First game is November 30.

•The Band (Holiday) Concert will be Sunday, December 16 at 3 pm. Blue, Silver, and Gold will perform both holiday and non-holiday music. (Deb Bowles: Are we going to have poinsettias again? Dave Prater to get information about cost.)

•Dustin says we are 90% likely to host a playoff game on Friday, 11/16 and 75% likely on Friday, 11/23. With that being said, maintenance has requested that we leave the water dripping to prevent freezing. Can we do that tonight?

•Thank you for everything you do!

Mr. Dengel-Lincoln High School orchestras, Middle School East Orchestra

•Since our last meeting, (1) the GLHS Orchestra Concert Attire arrived, (2) the district-wide Seventh Grade evening rehearsal was a great success (Oct. 25), (3) the annual Bonfire – though a little rainy – was an excellent opportunity for our students to socialize, and (4) the Freshman Orchestra and Freshman Band concert was an excellent display of growth.

•November is a busy month for the Gahanna Orchestras.

•Tuesday, November 13: District Sixth Grade 'Debut' and Freshman Orchestras, including such classics as Mary Had a Little Lamb, Let Us Chase the Squirrel, and many more! The Freshmen have added Sparks by Chris Bernotas to their line-up. Fun fact: Mr. Bernotas will be composing the piece for the District Eighth Grade band, paid for by the GLIMB Commission Fund.

In previous years, we have had a GLIMB Cookie Reception for these performances. This hospitality is a vital touch point to this organization for both middle and high school orchestra families.

•Wednesday, November 14: District Seventh Grade and Symphony Orchestras I/II, includes Don't Stop Believin' and an ABBA medley!

Thursday, November 15: District Seventh Grade and Chamber Orchestras, including Sting's Fields of Gold, Themes from 'The Avengers,' and two beautiful pieces inspired by colonial Americana.

•Thursday (Nov.15), the district eighth grade orchestra students (52) will be coming to GLHS for their annual concert-day clinic from 10am-2pm. GLIMB has traditionally provided lunch to these students including Chamber Orchestra (25). I have included a copy of the itinerary to coordinate the meal. •Thank you, GLIMB, for subsidizing the District Seventh Grade band and orchestra students' trip to The Ohio State University Celebration Concert on Friday, November 30. This performance is always a highlymotivating concert for our young students to experience and illustrate that even if they don't major in music, they can still be music-makers in college.

The GLHS Chamber Orchestra will be performing a set of holiday music at (1) Sunday, November 18 (Holiday Lights) at the base of the tree before Santa's arrival, and (2) Friday, November 30 at the Gahanna Library's annual reading of The Polar Express.

•Lastly, since there is no December meeting, I wanted to be sure you all knew about our NYC Trip Meeting for the Orchestra's performance tour in 2020: Tuesday, December 4 at 7:00 p.m.

Mr. Kinser---Middle School South Orchestra Not Present

Mr. Miller—Middle School West Band, Lincoln High School Silver Band Not Present

•Since last we met...The East, South, and West 7th and 8th grade bands had successful first performances on November 1 and November 5 at Middle School West. Both concerts were well-attended and featured excellent student performances, including nearly 130 7th grade band members performing Hang On Sloopy at the end of last night's concert! We raised $264 for the commission fund on the two nights combined.

•At last evening's 7th grade concert, we announced the commission of composer Chris Bernotas for a piece to be premiered by the District 8th Grade Band in January of 2020. We played a short video from Mr. Bernotas where he introduced himself to the students and talked about being excited to work with them and get to know them as we move toward this project next school year.

•Jazz Band and Woodwind Choir have begun at Middle School West, with both groups on their third week of rehearsal this week. Scheduling these ensembles is getting more and more challenging, as both 7th and 8th grade students have certain courses every day before the start of the school day, making them unavailable for morning rehearsals. We have reached a "compromise" rehearsal schedule and numbers for both groups are up this year, with 30 students participating. The Woodwind Choir is planning once again to do some "caroling" in December, hopefully combined with groups from East and South.

•Coming up soon...8th grade band members at all three middle schools received the District Playing Test assignment yesterday, and recordings are due on November 19. We have already begun working on new music for their January 13 performance at the high school.

•7th grade band, choir, and strings students are looking forward to attending the OSU "Musical Celebration Concert" on November 30 – THANKS to GLIMB for providing the $5 ticket charge for all band and strings students!

•The 62-member 6th grade band at Middle School West is off to a GREAT start in both sectional and full band classes – we are looking forward to their "First Concert" performance on Thursday, December 13 at Middle School West.

•High School Percussion Ensemble will begin soon on Thursdays after school, preparing for performances on February 16 for Solo and Ensemble Adjudicated Event and on February 23 and possibly the OSU Percussion Ensemble Festival.

•The OMEA District 15 Middle School Honor Band is taking place this Saturday, November 10 at Thomas Worthington High School. Five MS West students are participating: 7th graders Joey Frabell, Makhi McMillan, and Lorelei Wilkerson; and 8th graders Madison Armstrong and Josh Grieco. Guest conductors include George Edge, Angela Davoll, and Matt Guierreri •Thanks for all you do!

Ms. Ross—Middle School West Orchestra Not Present

Mrs. Shellhammer—Gahanna Lincoln High School Jazz bands Not Present

Committee Report

Concession Report—Jim Slates

•I'm hoping we get the two football playoff games; we have a ton of pop in the booths.

•The last football game of the regular season was a real stinker; we didn't use up much.

•We have lots of cans of pop and small waters if directors need it for an event (Hospitality). (Mr. Dengel will use it for the cookie reception on the 13th.)

Hospitality Report—Nicki Stamas Not Present

Uniform Report—Bryon Marusek

•We are working right now to get ready to go to NYC. It's a lot.

•Belts are really getting to be a problem. The belts went out for cleaning and came back moldy/mildewed. They had to be sent back to be re-cleaned, and the retreatment is hard on the belts: some of them have the stitching coming apart from the treatment. If we go with cloth belts (for now), it will be $11,000.

•Older uniforms are really beginning to show their age: I have at least two old pairs of pants fail each game. Our older uniforms are dropping like flies. We have a problem fitting longer-armed kids; we don't have enough jackets with longer arms. New uniforms are $300.

•We've been trying to clean the raincoats, since they've been worn seven games. The uniform parents have been taking them home and washing them: they look great and smell better!

Volunteer Report—Deborah Bowles

•Holiday Lights: need to find out how many chaperones are needed.

Sign-ups: Sign Up Genius is live for volunteers for the 16th and 23rd (playoff games). If schools are smaller, we may not have big crowds, but I'm planning on staffing all three booths right now.
We're sending a thank you card to Stonybrook Methodist Church to thank the volunteers who helped for Senior Night.

•I'm waiting for a scrap guy to come get "Goldie," then Jill will bring her donated refrigerator over.

New Business

•Booth shutdown: we'll work on it after the playoff games are all done. We remove the food that mice would get into and leave everything else. Maintenance will go in after the last game and drain the water lines.

•Regarding the Chamber Orchestra going to Cleveland: they are performing February 2nd, but traveling to Cleveland on Friday. There are two people who have offered to buy the orchestra a nice dinner on Friday. The busses for this trip were budgeted for in the annual budget.

•Regarding the Orchestra trip to NYC: idea to raise more money by having a raffle. Possible raffle items: Lego NYC sets, or a ride on a flight simulator (across from Net Jets) for four people.

•Regarding the individual student fundraising accounts: at issue with the school board is that they don't want our local-businesses to get "donation fatigue." Athletics is not as consistent with fund-raising as GLIMB is. Athletics did shut down the individual accounts because it was going to offset the pay-to-play fees from the school.

Old Business

•Booth repairs: the new chains are nearly done. The Sugar Shack door needs repaired/replaced. As far as getting lights turned on around the visitors booth, Mr. Miller feels things have been stalled with maintenance. Lights have been on one Friday night, and it made a big difference. They haven't been on any other Friday night or any weekday evening. The two floodlights that point to the playground make a big difference in safety and keeping kids from congregating...if they are on.

•Safes for the booths: no progress yet. Still pricing them out: looking at laptop safes perhaps. (Sonya: we don't need anything elaborate because they are for short-term use.) Keep on the agenda for January.
